Topic: Any

This lectureship was established in 1999 by Leonard V. and Lynn Quigley. Mr. and Mrs. Quigley are inveterate travelers and have enjoyed many educational tours through the Archaeological Institute of America. Leonard Quigley was a partner at the New York law firm of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, and Garrison and has been General Counsel of the AIA for many years. He was the recipient of the AIA Distinguished Service Award for 1997. The Institute is very grateful to him and his law firm for their superb donation of legal advice.
